Strike by DU teachers

†3216. SHRI P.K. MAHESHWARI: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Delhi University teachers had observed a strike in September, 2002, in protest against the UGC instructions;

(b) if so, the main reasons for the strike;

(c) whether the future of students is being jeopardized, due to the politics on account of the demands of teachers and the decisions of the UGC; and

(d) if so, the steps taken by Government to end the dead lock, keeping in view the future of the students?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT [DR. (SHRIMATI) RITA VERMA]: (a) and (b) According to the information furnished by the University of Delhi, Delhi University Teachers' Association (DUTA) had observed one week's strike in September, 2002 in protest against the decisions of the University Grants Commission (UGC) to impose ban on filling up of all vacant posts in the University and its colleges and to increase workload of teachers as per UGC norms.

(c) and (d) The University has informed that the UGC has since clarified that the ban on filling of vacant posts is not applicable to teaching posts. As regards the issue of increase in workload of teachers, a High Powered Committee on Accountability and Academic Reforms, constituted by the University to make recommendations about streamlining the teaching
